Breakfast Seminar Series

Presented by: Glenn M. Rissman and Tobi Beth Lebowitz

The Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008 (“ADAAA”) is an amended version of the 1990 law which protects individuals from discrimination in the workplace, as well as schools and other settings. The 2008 amendments emphasize that the definition of “disability” should be broadly construed in favor of expansive coverage for qualified individuals. This seminar will discuss the best practices for employers to identify and accommodate disabled individuals.

About the Speakers

Glenn M. Rissman and Tobi Beth Lebowitz are members of Stearns Weaver Miller’s top-ranked Labor and Employment Department, practicing out of the Firm’s Fort Lauderdale office. They handle a wide variety of employment law matters across a range of industries.

About the Series

Stearns Weaver Miller’s Alphabet Soup Seminar Series will be held in Boca Raton on a quarterly basis. The series, designed for Human Resources Professionals, General Counsel and Senior Executives, will provide an in-depth look at specific laws and policies. The last topic of the series is:

- GINA: New to the Dance but Don’t Forget Her in the Corner
